Festive fancies

With Santa's reindeer clipping at our heels and the calendar months swooping by, NorthWest is ready for its very first festive season.

After a truly successful launch this October, and such a warm welcome from nearby residents, we're moving towards Christmas in good cheer.

Aside from presents of every shape and size, inside our gift guide you'll find recommendations on treats to refuel on during your visit, and all you need to know about Christmas at NorthWest Shopping Centre. We also profile four store managers, glean their personal tips on navigating the holiday season, and point you towards a selection of novel stocking stuffers that won't break the bank.

Whether you like to get your shopping done early or prefer a last minute dash, we've got extended shopping hours and gift wrap stations which will be available by way of gold coin donation - with all proceeds to Massey High School.

As the first of many to come, we wish you and your family a merry holiday season.

Team talk

We chat to members of the NorthWest retail team about festive rituals, shopping tips and the key to good gift giving.

Hanna Morse – Manager at Backdoor Surf

On my wish list this Christmas is…
Each year I always wish for a new surfboard to add to my little collection. Otherwise a big shiny gold watch, or that bottle of perfume I've wanted for ages.

What is the key to good gift giving?
I like to buy my friends and family something that helps them to pursue and enjoy their passion. For a skateboarder this could be a new deck or new shoes. Or for someone who loves to laze on the beach, I'd gift a big towel or a wide brim hat so they can look good and protect their skin.

During the holiday season, what treats do you indulge in?
My Mum bakes an incredible Christmas cake with sherry icing. One bite of this brings back all of my childhood memories.

Do you have any much-loved Christmas rituals?
The adults in our family simply eat so much Christmas tucker that we can hardly move, while all the kids turn hyperactive, overly excited that it's Christmas Day. My Finnish friend Emmi who works with me always has a mandatory Christmas sauna, which would be interesting given the warm weather here!

Share some of your own tips for a hassle-free Christmas shopping experience.
If they are hard to buy for, don't leave it to the last minute. Take them shopping in late October or November and listen to them suggest what they like and then take a trip in to buy it later on.

Michele Stutton – Retail Manager for Wallace Cotton

On my wish list this Christmas is…
A beautiful New Zealand oil painting from Texan Art School, a set of Imperial Sheets from Wallace Cotton and a big diamond ring (a girl can dream).

What is the key to good gift giving?
I like to collect hints from friends and family throughout the year so that I can get them something they actually love. This eliminates the risk and they are always pleasantly surprised when I remember something they said months before.

During the holiday season, what treats do you indulge in?
I'm a sucker for Christmas mince pies, and love Christmas Stollen but my favourite would be champagne of course.

Do you have any much-loved Christmas rituals?
The kids love making gingerbread men. We decorate them together and hang them from the tree. They get eaten so quickly, none of them ever make it to Christmas Day. We often escape to Tawharanui Regional Park, an hour north of Auckland, for Christmas. Once there, a 'must-do' is sliding down the hill on blow-up camp beds at break neck speed.

Share some of your own tips for a hassle-free Christmas shopping experience.
Make the most of late-night shopping. Accept that it's going to be busy and just roll with it. The hustle and bustle is half the fun.

Daniel Horncastle – Store Manager at Merchant 1948

On my wish list this Christmas is…
Lots of new tech. I'd love a Macbook Pro with Retina Display 15", A SmartTV and an iPhone 6.

What is the key to good gift giving?
I am a terrible gift giver!! I like to give the gift of choice, and often opt for mall gift cards or vouchers.

During the holiday season, what treats do you indulge in?
Cookie Time cookie buckets…

What are your much-loved Christmas rituals?
I like to keep things simple. This means hanging out with family and friends, and having a cider in the sun.

Share some of your own tips for a hassle-free Christmas shopping experience.
Get in early, know what you want, have a list. Pre-shop online before going out, this way there is minimal disappointment.

Tua Ikitau – Barista & Duty Manager at The Coffee Club

On my wish list this Christmas is…
To spend Christmas with my entire Ikitau family, season tickets to all 2016 Warriors games and NRL 9's tickets.

What is the key to good gift giving?
In the month before Christmas, listen out for hints. It helps to know exactly what the person likes.

What exciting things or new products can we expect from The Coffee Club in the build up to Christmas?
We are open 8am - 9pm for breakfast, lunch and dinner. You have to try our crisp pizzas they are yummy!

During the holiday season, what treats do you indulge in?
Omg! Christmas ham and chocolates.

Do you have any much-loved Christmas rituals?
Christmas Eve midnight service and our family secret santas.

Share some of your own tips for a hassle-free Christmas shopping experience.
Set a budget and stick to it. Get in early to the shopping mall to avoid queues and having to hunt for a car park.

Out & about

There's more to see and enjoy on Maki Street.

For a relaxed open air shopping experience you ought to venture onto Maki Street, NorthWest's outdoor shopping destination. Here you'll find a diverse bunch of retail favourites, from destination stores like EB Games, Bike Barn and Backdoor Surf to homeware boutiques Wallace Cotton and Trade Aid.

The Rock Shop has also made itself at home here as West Auckland's new dedicated music hub. Enthusiasts can test out a new guitar or chat to one of their knowledgeable in store experts. We also can't go past Campus Japan for their selection of eclectic Japanese gifts and homewares. This store is a one-stop shop for easy stocking stuffers and a great place to snatch up last minute items for under the Christmas tree.

Maki Street has your food and drink cravings sorted too, with The Coffee Club and Mad Mex in residence. Take your lunch outside onto one of the many green spaces, or make a beeline towards a park bench and rest weary legs in the sun. You're never too far from the rest of the action either. All stores lead out to the town square, and you're always just a stroll from the inside action too. All you can eat

Our pick of the tastiest treats to refuel on during your festive shopping spree.

Ice Cream Soda from Majestic Tea Bar

You hit the shops with tenacity, but it's now 3pm and energy levels are waning. Majestic Tea Bar is your one-stop thirst quencher, with a comprehensive tea selection, espresso and their take on the old-fashioned ice cream soda. Slurp one on its own or pair with a dish from their all day menu.

Acai Breakfast Bowl from Tank Juice

Is it dessert, or is it breakfast? For the health-conscious shopper, Tank's Acai bowl will satisfy any sweet craving in a heartbeat. Acai berry is high in antioxidants, and loaded with omega 9. Paired with a guarana shot, mango, crunchy granola and sliced banana, it's a delicious snack that can be enjoyed on the go.

Thai Beef Salad from Habitual Fix

'Fast and healthy' rarely exist in the same sentence, yet Habitual Fix's salad bar solves this conundrum for us. There are a large variety of salad mixes to choose from, like the Thai Beef Salad. It's packed with grass-fed beef, mesclun, red onion, capsicum, crispy noodles, coriander, peanut, and sauced with a chili lime dressing.

Bento Box from Smart Sushi

On the menu for lunch is the pick-and-mix of Japanese cuisine, the bento box. Perfect for children and adults alike, you can devour bits of crispy tempura, delicate pieces of nigiri and sashimi slices in one convenient package.

Nani's Burger From The Food Crew

A hearty option for when you need to talk sense into some serious hunger pangs. Nani's burger is fresh and flavoursome, made using a traditional recipe from owner Edison Zajmi's Albanian father.

The Gift of Food from The Coffee Club

The Coffee Club vouchers satiate your personal mid-shop cravings and tick a present off the list too. Vouchers can be redeemed at any location on baked goods, light meals, coffee and more. Perfect for those who appreciate the gift of choice.
