

9 great reasons to visit NorthWest Shopping Centre:

1. More than 25 places to eat & drink.

From tempting bites on the go, to family feasts and cocktails.

3. Sushi Train.

Have the family ever been to a sushi train restaurant before? Come dine at Tomi Ro at NorthWest for a fun new way to experience sushi.

5. The parents room.

Taking your babies and children to NorthWest is easy with our spacious and well designed parents room. Inside is everything you need including a private feeding area, change bays and more. We've also got free school holiday entertainment and lots of fun on Toddler Tuesdays. Check our website for the full schedule.

7. "Husband" rest areas.

The best part about NorthWest? Shopping lovers can co-exist peacefully with those less interested (even if they're not a husband). Direct them towards Te Pūmanawa Square (Town Square) lawn to relax in the sun, or to Cleaver & Co where they can grab a bite to eat and watch live sport.

9. Fresh air retail experience.

A stroll down Maki Street = relaxed high street shopping.

2. Carparks galore!

There are over 1100 free parking spaces, which include special parents with pram spots. We also have electric charging stations available for use.

4. 100+ stores.

With over 100 brands and flavours Kiwis know and love, you can find all your favourite stores to keep on trend – and warm – this winter.

6. Perfect for a pit stop.

Going for a surf? Spending the day mountain biking in the forests? Simply pull off the motorway to pacify hunger pangs on the way home.

8. Modern design.

With natural lighting and award-winning contemporary architectural features using carefully crafted timber, NorthWest has been carefully designed for maximum ease and enjoyment.

By day...

NorthWest's Maki Street precinct holds all kinds of attractions. It's conveniently located right next door to Te Pūmanawa Square (Town Square). Pick up coffee and sweet treats from one of the many cafes, or dine in with the family before enjoying a scoop of gelato in the sun. It's also easy to tick off the to do list on Maki Street, with a wide variety of shops to choose from.

... by night.

Food should be an experience, and Maki Street happens to hold the key to your evening dining options. After a long day at the beach out West, and in need of a feed? Catching up with friends after work? Fitting some shopping in on Late Night Thursday? There's an impressive array of dining options to suit everyone.

Free WiFi

Stay connected, the wifi is on us. Look for 'NorthWest Free Wifi' in your settings and follow the prompts.

An outdoor shopping experience.

You'll find no shortage of shops on Maki Street. Source the perfect housewarming gift or update your home with treasures from Trade Aid, Wallace Cotton or CITTA Design. Stop by Bike Barn and get new gear for weekend adventures or head into Stirling Sports for after school sports supplies. In need of some me time? Magic Fingers offer a selection of massage therapies, while ERA is the place to go for manicures, pedicures and other luxuries.
